Looks like it was easier than I thought. Your answers can be located here:

It doesn't look like Dunkin and Bush received one. Hope that helps!

Eva, the site is Dunkin and Bush at 12005 North Burgard Street Portland, Oregon.

If not too much trouble the 104e list would be useful to me to identify site that have been asked and if they responded.

If this is a significant effort them just if Dunkin and Bush was sent a 104e request would be fine.

If you have a specific name, we might be able to retrieve it more easily, rather than the 300+ names. Do you want the 300+ names too? It's more a concern about how much work to retrieve. I'm pretty sure it's releasable, although I'll double check with our attorney. The PRP list is definitely releasable. Thanks.

Eva, one of my site owners consultant wanted to know if the site had received a 104e (sorry I used the wrong number before) or was on a PRP list.

Do you have any concerns sharing this information with a consultant for one of my Schnitzer Industrial Park sites?

Thank You

Hi Jim-

Here's the list of PRPs. The list of 107(e) recipients might be more difficult to retrieve (sent over several years). Any specific reason for the request before I proceed asking for it? Thanks!

Eva, sorry for the second email.

Would you also let me know where to find the list of who received 107e letter and PRPs too?

Thank You

Eva, would you direct me to the Portland Harbor list of Potential Responsible Parties?

Thank You
